

Vesalius College: AY 2014 Expenses Worksheet

Costs (Billable Through Rutgers Student Accounting)	Includes: Tuition, Program Administration, Some Excursions, HTH Health Insurance
Program Cost	$23,649

The program deposit of $800 is due 2 weeks after acceptance into the program to secure your spot. Shortly after your term bill is released, your deposit will be credited to your Rutgers student account and you will be responsible for any remaining payments (less any *Financial Aid or Scholarship).

Estimated Additional Expenses	(Not Billable Through Rutgers Student Accounting)
Airfare	$1250
Meals (Students staying in a homestay may have a lower meal budget)	$5200
Personal Expenses	$5400
Housing (Cost varies by housing type)	$8000
Local Transportation	$1000
Books and Classroom Materials	$800
Visa (Estimated cost for US citizens)	$234
US Health Insurance (Recommended)	$1,500 (Estimated cost of Rutgers Student Health Insurance)
Total Estimated Expenses	$23,434

The above estimated total expenses are intended to help plan and prepare for the program. Total expenses will vary by student and are subject to change depending on currency fluctuation, past-participant reports, university recommendations, and personal spending habits. Not all students will incur all the expenses above. Please contact the Center for Global Education about estimated expenses as well as ways to reduce expenses while abroad.

*If you will be awarded scholarships, grants, or financial aid through Rutgers, these awards will be posted to your Student Account according to the normal disbursement schedule after you confirm your attendance. Some non-billable items may be due prior to the release of your semester bill and your financial aid, so students should be prepared to pay these expenses in advance.
